

Glen Isle Improvement Association, Inc.
– Application for Associate Membership –

GIIA By-Laws provide for a special class of membership for renters who wish to take part in the community and use facilities. Only renters with a lease term minimum of six months may apply for Associate Membership. Those seeking an exception may seek approval from the GIIA Board of Directors.

Use of community facilities and participation on board committees is contingent on application and payment of fees for Associate Membership, as well as approval by the GIIA Board of Directors. Below is the language from the most recently amended GIIA By-Laws:

Class C (Associate Members) – Renters/Lessee of real property owners.
Associate membership may be granted to lessees after payment of covenant levies by the property owner. The lessee must pay the associate membership fee ($150) in effect at the time.
An Associate member may not hold elective office in this organization; however, the Associate member may serve on any committee or committees.
An Associate member has no voting rights.

Residents who believe they meet the requirements are invited to apply for Associate - Class C status, using the form below. Submit by email (quickest method) to: glenislestates@gmail.com, give to any Board Officer or Director, or mail to: GIIA, Inc., P.O. Box 222, Riva, MD 21140. Payment can be made to: GIIA, Inc.

Please understand this is all run by volunteers and we all try to get things done as quickly as we can. Decisions are made by the GIIA Board of Directors and you will be notified upon approval.
